Information for Applicants

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Wi Pere Trust education scholarships is to assist Wi Pere whānau to attend a tertiary institution to gain qualifications relevant to the Trust. The longer term aim is to recruit more whānau with tertiary qualifications which will aid them to attain senior positions in the Trust or similar businesses.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

There are two new scholarships available each year for full time study, up to a maximum of six operating at one time.

The scholarships are open to any member of the whānau.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Each scholarship is worth $4,500 per year and is payable in three instalments, subject to enrolment in the tertiary institution. Instalment payments are as follows:

$1,500 on evidence of enrolment

$1,500 subject to semester 1 academic results being approved by Trust Board

$1,500 subject to semester 2 academic results being approved by Trust Board

Scholarship holders will be expected to keep the Trust informed of any difficulties they may experience during the academic year. They will also need to provide a summary of their academic results throughout the year.

The Trust reserves the right to terminate the scholarship on the basis of unsatisfactory conduct or progress on the part of the scholar.

Each scholarship may be renewable for the following year if the current scholarship holder has attained academic grades equivalent to a "B+" average.

Scholarship holders will be encouraged to undertake paid vacation work at the Trust, if it is available.

The Trust will endeavour to provide permanent employment on the completion of the tertiary qualification, if it is available.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTION

Consideration will be given to applicants studying in New Zealand any undergraduate degree relevant to the Wi Pere Trust. Preference will be given to agricultural, horticultural, forestry or business students.
